

HFHS hopes that the legislature will not take away from children what society should invest in them as one of its important future resources. The economy is tough right now and the State is short of money. Basic human needs for children, however, are necessities. Children usually belong with their parents. Shelters provide one safety net for shelter for children and their moms.

Bonnie Reilein
Executive Director
Holy Family Home and Shelter